British Beat Japanese Attacks

Soviet Sees Nothing But Defeat For Japs Taunts Nazis

By HENRY SHAPIRO, TORONTO.
KUBYSHEV, Russian Premier, today said, "The Japanese aggressor has plunged into a very hazardous adventure which bodes him nothing but defeat." He said, "And if he counted on the possibility of a lightning victory he is in for a disappointment no less than that suffered by the bloodthirsty Hitler as the result of his bandit attack on the Soviet Union."

As Pravda published the first important Russian pronouncement on the new Pacific war, the Soviet government today belligerently taunted Germany on the failure of its greatest offensive of all time. The communique, addressed to

"the crooks and sharpers of the Hitler and Co. gambling house," cleared the collapse of the German campaign on the eastern front. The communique came one day after a Pravda editorial yesterday which said that Russia would never conclude a separate peace with Germany and that peace would be

BRITISH CRUISER MAKES DARING ATTACK ON DERNA Nazi Regiment Is Reported In Libya

Resigns Post

CAIRO, Dec. 12.—(AP)—British troops have destroyed the German 361st Air Regiment and have fought through a two-day and a night in a 50-mile advance beyond Tobruk. It was reported officially today.

Details of the destruction of the German regiment were not given beyond a statement that occurred in "recent fighting in Libya."

Earlier a communique disclosed the drive westward from Tobruk had partly encircled Ghat and penetrated perhaps 120 miles beyond the Libyan-Egyptian frontier.

Others withdrawing
A spokesman in London said Ghat was surrounded but still held by Axis troops. He said other forces of Germany and Italy were continuing to fight.

ALEXANDRIA, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Sweeping within point-blank range, a British cruiser heavily shelled Derna on the Libyan coast in a daring surprise attack today and safely emerged from one of the biggest air-bombing assaults since Cairo. Axis shipping and harbor installations were reported heavily damaged.

continuing a withdrawal in the west but "booster of later" news expected to attempt a new stand.

The hard-driven bid for a decisive victory in the Libyan campaign on the 25th day apparently was under command of Maj.-Gen. Neil Munro, British, who replaced Lt.-Gen. Sir Alan Cunningham in command on Dec. 11.

DESPERATE SUMMER CAMPAIGN AHEAD

Japan is Expected On Defensive Within Three Months

U.S. May Request Use Of Siberia Air Bases For Attack On Nippon Coast

Copyright, 1941, by the Chicago Daily News, and The Edmonton Bulletin.

CHUNGKING, Dec. 12.—(CND)—The far-flung nature and boldness of Japan's blitz attack admittedly surprised the majority of the diplomats and militarists of the Far East but, regardless of the successes which the Japanese are likely to score at the outset as a result of the surprise onslaughts, the conviction is universal here that Tokyo's dictatorship has chosen to commit slow-bleeding hari-kiri. It is believed to be virtually certain that the Japanese will be thrown on the defensive within three or four months and confronted by a desperate summer campaign.

gained; women are lining up to go down to enroll in medical air corps as casualties arrive from the distant front.

The situation on the peninsula was regarded as at least as good as the Japanese landing at Kuala Lumpur. The Japanese, after having received reinforcements, the Japanese were reported to be in good fighting position, but believed in position to make further landings difficult.

JAPANESE FLEET OFF FIRST CLASH

MANILA, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Japanese warships fled from United States surface ships in the encounter of the two fleets since the war began and darkness prevented the Americans from renewing the action. It was reported today at Manila that fresh land and air attacks on the Philippines.

Admiral Thomas C. Hart, commander-in-chief of the U.S. Pacific fleet, said ships from his fleet had only one day's notice to get ready for the Japanese warships, but that ended without any serious fighting. The U.S. fleet involved was not stated.

However, he acknowledged the Japanese force had come heavily in the red Wednesday on the coast of Luzon.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—(AP)—President Roosevelt said today that the Japanese fleet was holding out.

Cavite naval yard off Manila and the raid caused a considerable loss of life.

JAPANESE RAIDS

At the same time, the Far Eastern army command announced Japanese planes had raided widespread areas of the Philippines and the Japanese fleet was reported to have landed at Legaspi, 250 miles southeast of Manila.

The Japanese attacked Olongapo, 150 miles west of Manila, the most important naval installation in the Philippines; the Japanese, and Clark Field, 40 miles north of Manila.

The spokesman declared the Japanese had improved their strength in Northern Luzon, but that the situation remained unchanged materially.

In a lengthy report on the naval action thus far, Admiral Hart announced a naval fleet trailed a Japanese battleship, the Japanese ship similar to her, off northern Luzon until other naval planes could come up and "personally" destroy the vessel with bombs.

AVIATOR IS KILLED

The army also cited one of its aviators, Capt. Colin P. Kelly, Jr., for securing three direct hits on a Japanese battleship in the Japanese fleet close and leaving her in flames.

That same announcement told of Capt. Kelly's death.

(On details of Capt. Kelly's feat were given but it was pronounced that the Japanese fleet was in the Philippines, and that the Japanese attack on the Manila-Cavite area was made by a large number of planes flying high above the aircraft carrier.

Admiral Hart said the technique of the Japanese fleet was of a high order and that "all in all" he would not be surprised if the Japanese raid was successful from the Japanese standpoint.

DAMAGE IS HEAVY

The admiral said the raiders did "great damage" to Cavite and damaged some small ship lying up at Cavite docks. Other small ships were pulled away and damaged.

"There was considerable loss of life more among the civilian population of Cavite than among the naval personnel," he said.

The navy reported announcement at the headquarters of Lt. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commander-in-chief of the U.S. Far Eastern army, that 113 Japanese bombers were counted in the morning raids on the Philippines and that 11 were reported shot down.

Manila plans to shift communications without panic. It is believed that the Japanese fleet was in the area for 48 hours and 40 minutes.

"Bombs Dropped Like Hail" As Jap Air Fleet Opened Fierce Attack On Hawaii

By FRANK TREMAINE

Copyright, 1941, by British United Press and The Edmonton Bulletin.

HONOLULU, Dec. 12.—(RUP)—Joseph P. Poindexter, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, sat at his desk Sunday morning hastily scribbling an emergency proclamation when two Japanese bombers narrowly missed his residence and another blasted a hole in the capitol grounds.

None was spared from the dangers of the surprise Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the island of Oahu Sunday, details of which it is now possible, with government sanction, to disclose.

Twenty-four bombers, which claimed 1,000 Americans lives, Monday morning—wounded at least 1,000 and caused $10,000,000 in damage. There was no sign of an invading force since then.

Forty-nine civilians, including many Japanese-Americans, were killed and more than 100 wounded.

One of the four bombers, their trail "rising sun" insignia clearly visible, swung out of a clear sky in the early, quiet hours Sunday to open the attack.

Within seconds defuncting anti-aircraft batteries were sending a heavy barrage after them and puffs of white smoke filled the sky. Minutes later heavy clouds of smoke billowed up from Pearl Harbor, 14 miles from Honolulu.

From Hickam Field, in the interior of Oahu northwest of the city, the dive bombers were followed by a pair of fighters.

Navy vessels and ground establishments were the principal targets. Not a single military or naval establishment was overlooked by the raiders.

Wheeler Field and Schofield Barracks, also inland from Honolulu, were raided simultaneously. News came "bombs dropped like hail."

Another attack was launched from the east side of the island at Bellows field and the naval air station at Kaneohe.

The dive bombers came in single file, at least just skimming the tops of the waves. As they were being shot down, the attack was virtually undisturbed until they seemed over the hill.

The first attack came a few minutes before 8 a.m. Within a few hours the U.S. fleet steamed out of the harbor to the west and the sound of heavy gunfire was heard.

There were unconfirmed reports that a Japanese carrier and submarine were seen in the harbor.

Deputy Samuel W. King of Hawaii announced to Washington that the Japanese fleet was in the harbor and that the Japanese planes were shot down during the attack.

At least 15 bombs hit the city. They left great two mounds of rubble. Several large downtown buildings were damaged. William T. Young, mayor of Honolulu, was killed.

His greatest lifetime effort was the production of a three-volume work entitled "The History of the Hawaiian Islands." He was killed by a bomb which fell on his office.

Through the years, in addition to his many labors he has been in constant demand as a public speaker and has visited many Alaska and other parts of the world.

His studies of the grain situation, his origin and a ready fund of statistics against which he had to fight, made him a valuable aid to the government.

At all times he has proved himself a man of great ability and a man of great courage.

On Aug. 14, 1931, he was married to Gertrude Kirby Cooper of York, N.Y. They have three sons, Frank, Hugh and Eric, are serving with the Canadian armed forces.

Mr. Blue was a member of the Board of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, was the organization of the demand of the Peace River, Canada, in 1928.

Stepping Into Line

From points across Canada come reports of men crowding into active army recruiting stations in greater numbers than for many months.

So much for the slander that Canadians have not enlisted hitherto because they did not want to fight. They are not enlisting in the desert numbers because they did not see any fighting in the immediate prospect, but only long months of waiting.

Now that fighting is going on with Canadian troops in the thick of it, lines are forming at the doors of recruiting depots everywhere. The Canadians at Hong Kong shall not want reinforcements, nor those beyond the Atlantic once they get into the fray.

History thus repeats itself. The former great war every long list of Canadian casualties started a movement to the enlistment places, sometimes a rush which the officers could not handle.

Canadians have no enthusiasm for soldiering. They have not enough of the long range enthusiasm that compels men to undertake an unlimited period of training. But they have, and have always had, readiness to get into uniform when there was actual fighting in sight.

We Can't "Live As Usual"

Prime Minister Curtin voiced Australia's reaction to the Axis drive in the Pacific area in this way: "There must be an end to the way of life that can no longer be business as usual in Australia."

Details of application may differ, but the same rule must go. Canada, Japan is nearly as close to British Columbia as it is to Australia, and if the main Axis objective is to cripple the United States our western coast is the logical approach.

Canada's national job is to smash the Axis and to end the danger, hence, the pleasure, the occupation of every Canadian are of secondary importance. The ranks of our fighting forces must be extended and kept up and civilians will have to readjust their wants and habits and ambitions in whatever ways are needed.

The nation solidly behind those forces. We shall have to do without things we would like to have, to give up plans for expensive entertainments, to cut down on our normal standard of living, devote ourselves to work that counts.

The war now is not away off in Russia or Libya. It has been carried to our western gateway, and the enemy must be dealt with as really as the enemy beyond the waters, which wash our shores as they wash the shores of Australia.

It Might Happen Here

Ottawa takes the view that the prairie provinces are not liable to be raided by Japanese armies and the fact is the opinion of military men, and it is entitled to corresponding confidence.

The disturbing fact, however, is that Japanese raiders did a lot of things that Sunday which the military chiefs of a half dozen countries did not expect them to do. Militarily these raids were absurd, and in the long run ineffective.

But some thousands of people were killed, and a vast amount of property destroyed. The communities attacked suffered just as really as any military raids had been made in accord with the best military tradition.

While hoping the experts are right, people in Edmonton and other prairie centres are not going to sleep comfortably if a Japanese force establishes a landing anywhere along the British Columbia coast. Edmonton is only six hundred miles from that coast.

A modern bomber could fly that far in two or three hours, unload its cargo of death and destruction, and have plenty of gasoline left to get back to its base. Without getting into the war, it is not all likely to do, prairie people have a healthy suspicion that the lunatics who are running the Japanese are liable to stage raids with no military or other purpose in view save that of killing, destroying and spreading panic.

At the least there should be air raid alarm signals arranged in every Canadian city, on the prairie coast, where, and the public instructed as to what they should do if the alarm is sounded. This would not cost much, and the quieting effect would be worth the expense.

Striking At The Arsenal

Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini have gone through the formality of regularizing their war against the United States. It is not important, interesting, that Benito has his partner to the balcony, and belched defiance at Washington in inverse ratio to the likelihood that he will do much to make good the threats.

As Nazi and Fascist raiders have been sinking American merchant ships and warships which they could for months, these declarations of hostility do little more than recognize the state of war already in existence. On the other hand, they release the United States from the restraints of a technical peace status, and invite the use against them of the whole armed forces of this republic.

The significance of this move is that the Axis chiefs have decided they could not win their war if the United States was allowed to go on sending lease-lend supplies in ever-growing volume to Britain and Russia. They have therefore launched an attack upon the "arsenal" itself, Japan leading off with the attacks of last Sunday. United States naval and air forces, ports and industrial plants are the objectives against which the operations will be particularly directed.

Hitler—Mussolini—did not want war with the United States—at present. The Fuehrer has done all he could to avoid it—until he could dispose of Britain and Russia. But that has not been found to be practicable. Russia and Britain could be disposed of while their resources were supplied with tools from the republic. Hence all the strength the Axis can muster for the purpose is to be directed to paralyze the production and shipment of these supplies.

All-out war against the United States is Hitler's next desperate throw. Unless he can achieve the arsenal he cannot win anyway.

Mr. Blue Retires

Rounding out twenty-one years of service, Mr. John Blue has found it necessary, because of ill-health, to retire from the position of secretary-manager of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce. His wife, Mrs. Blue, is also retiring.

Mr. Blue came to Edmonton about the time Alberta took its place as one of the provinces. He was a member of the provincial legislature, in which capacity he began his western career as a reporter on the staff of The Bulletin, leaving to take the duties of librarian at the University of Alberta. He has since served for a decade with marked efficiency. Few men know Alberta, past and present, better than he.

If health conditions permit, Mr. Blue would be a good man to help lay the foundations of a provincial museum for the better part of the century. He is interested in the history of the province and in the traditions which have come down from the days before that history began to be set in print.

Nazi Declaration Of War Proves Axis Plot Against U.S.

Japan Has Advantage of German Experience and Methods in Blitz Warfare

By HAROLD L. WEIR

The German and Italian declarations of war should leave no doubt in the mind of anyone that the Japanese outlook is a carefully prepared plan against the United States, worked out over a period of months and years.

Japan's all-out assault upon all its Pacific naval and air base at Pearl Harbor, shows an initial advantage over the Russian fleet that the latter was never able to regain.

Harold L. Weir, author of "The Japanese in the Pacific," declares that the Japanese had been planning this move for a long time.

It was not that the Japanese needed this move to win the war. It was precisely by these methods that Japan, in the Russo-Japanese war, secured the naval and air base at Pearl Harbor.

All those who, a few weeks ago, hazarded a guess at what the Japanese strategy was and where it would lead, took first, have been flabbergasted by the move.

Monotony Of Restricted Rations

English Breakfast, Ancient Stand-by of Britons, Is Now Sorry Meal

By J. S. PRIESTLEY

LONDON—How is our food in Britain now? The answer is: "It is not a question of quantity, but of quality." The monotony of restricted rations is a fact that is not a question of quantity, but of quality.

My wife, who really ought to be writing this article, declares that the shortage of good cooking fat has taken much of the pleasure out of cooking. The monotony of restricted rations is a fact that is not a question of quantity, but of quality.

Good Bread. We have always plenty of good bread, certain vegetables and an adequate ration of meat and the like. We are short of fish, eggs and cheese unfortunately, for these, too, are in short supply.

When I left Belgium, conditions in the factory were not too bad; the Germans were still trying to persuade the Belgians that it was a good thing to be under German rule," he said.

"We used to start at seven in the morning and finish at six o'clock, with half an hour for dinner. The foremen were used to say how they wished to be back again with their families in Germany."

fact that the Japanese attack practically everywhere at once.

It is obvious now that it followed the German pattern and is being directed by the German leadership of Nazi strategists, the Japanese may be expected to do a maximum of clever things with a minimum of intelligence.

Russia's Position. There is a feeling that Russia's position in the new conflict, hitherto uncertain and enigmatic, may be clarified by the entrance of Germany and Italy against the United States.

It is more than possible that the shoe may be on the other foot. For there is some reason to believe that Germany's price for her declaration against the United States may be a Japanese declaration against Russia.

Kitchener's Proudest Moment

FROM FIELD MARSHAL LORD KITCHENER'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY

A few days after taking up my appointment as commander-in-chief of the British forces in the West Indies, I happened to meet my wife, whom I had known in India. She had just come out of his chair with a shout: "What! His wife! That fellow married! Good Lord! Lady Roberts at once bridled up. 'Yes, I have married,' she said, 'but I am not his wife. I am his friend.'"

Lord Kitchener then collapsed, murmuring, "Oh, I'm glad you think so." Lady Roberts then said that far from ever resenting my marriage, he became in the years that followed a devoted husband and father.

the United States could not afford to offend the Japanese by indicating that they did not trust them.

There is another ironic implication in the fact that the Japanese were the first to attack the United States that the latter should have aid to China as the price of Japanese friendship. There were some American critics of the administration who seriously urged such a move.

It must be remembered that although the Japanese hold Canton and some of the southern Chinese ports, their occupation south of the Yangtze is so sketchy that even airports are in the hands of the Chinese. These will be invaluable to American flyers.

A Japanese declaration against Russia will be one method of accomplishing this purpose.

It is significant that the reports of the past two days have told of great Russian air successes. Does this mean that the Japanese have already withdrawn large numbers of their planes for assaults on the British Isles in America?

One of the ironies of the situation is the fate of Guam. Guam, virtually undefended and it was undefended because the American Congress had been loathe to "provoke" Japan by building up a base there.

It was felt by some Americans that when our second girl was born she stood together to her.

Looking them Over

JACK KELLY

LAST night Sid Beach, the well-known Vancouver business man who has been largely instrumental in bringing the boxing game back to life at the coast, arrived here in Edmonton and immediately jumped into the job of completing details for the Kenny Lindsay-Henry Espinosa fight card at the Empire theatre on Monday night.

Espinosa arrived in Edmonton on Thursday from Los Angeles and with him came Bobby Melino, also of Los Angeles, who will battle Jimmy Chapman over the 10-round route in the second main event on Monday night. Both Los Angeles boxers, Lindsay and Chapman, located up at a public workout in the Palace Gardens yesterday. Today they will spar at the Royal Canadian Navy Reserve barracks. Saturday at 2:30 p.m. they will spar at the Palace Gardens, and at 6 p.m. Sunday they will go through a final boxing-up at the same place. Those drills at the Palace Gardens are open to the public.

Of the records of the boys, this coming fight card promises to be one of the best Edmonton has seen in a long time.

Kenny Lindsay, the dominant champion and a leading contender for the world title, started as an amateur with Arnold Bergman in 1935 and won the British Columbia amateur title that year. He won it again in 1937 and went on to win the Northwest Golden Gloves tourney. In 1939 Kenny won the U.S. national golden glove and diamond belt at San Francisco—the first time a Canadian ever achieved this honor. He then turned pro.

Lindsay Has Never Been Knocked Down
In all, Lindsay has won some 120 pro and amateur fights and travelled 60,000 miles for them. This includes 12 trips to Los Angeles and last summer's jaunt to Hawaii, where he fought and dropped a close decision to Ron Davis, the Filipino who beat Champion Leo Salica shortly after in a non-title bout at Honolulu.

Fighting the best punches in the amateur division, Lindsay has never been knocked down. He is 30 years old and has high hopes of getting a title bout with Salica before he enters one of the armed services to help Canada fight the biggest battle of all.

Espinosa is one of the leading bantams in the Los Angeles area where most of the good little men are centered just now. The fact he won the bonus money for putting on the best fight for the card at the Hollywood Stadium six times is impressive evidence that he can fight plenty.

Back to Old Home Town

AFTER you check over those records of the principals, it is hardly necessary to say much more except to add that Kenny Lindsay was born in Edmonton. His uncle is Bill Lindsay of the street railway department. Kenny has been anxious for some time to fight in his old home town and is determined to put on a battle that will keep the folks talking for weeks to come.

Jimmy Chapman will have his hands full with Bobby Melino. Bobby is an exceptionally clever outpunch. Dave Cavada, Chapman's manager, didn't discover until yesterday's workout that Melino picked punches from the port side and the discovery has him worried plenty.

Entrance of Sid Beach into the Edmonton sport picture at this time as a promoter is a cheering development in this town where major sport attractions are at a low ebb. Sid has an idea that it might be possible to work out plans for several fights this winter. He believes in presenting the very best cards obtainable and fortunately is in the position to finance them. His plans of course will be tentative until the new Jap war settles down a bit, for mobilization moves by Canada and the United States may put all worthwhile boxes in uniform shortly.

Finis Finally Written To Experiment Costing Millions

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(EUP)—In a little less than 10 days the old guy with the scythe who is known as Father Time has put an end to $500,000 worth of the boldest, gaudiest and most expensive attempt to buy a pennant that baseball has ever known—and probably ever will know.

This is the $400,000 noble experiment carried out by Tom Yawkey with the Boston Red Sox as the guinea pig. It lasted for six years and technically speaking, it failed because not even millions of dollars and dozens of great stars could boost the Sox to the top rung of the American League ladder where Yawkey wanted them. And now it's all over.

It is over because in just a few days more than a week the three musketeers of the Yawkey experiment have passed out like three active players. One of them is gone for good. Another may find temporary place with some other club and the third will stay in Boston—but as a benchwarmer rather than an active player.

For when the Sox take the field for their 1942 opener there will be a new man at first base in place of Jimmy Fox. Another new player will have been assigned to the short-stop slot where the fans have long been accustomed to watching Joe Cronin. And although he hasn't been officially designated as yet, there'll be a third new man in the pitchers' box to take over the shoes of old Mike Grove.

Boston obviously will regret the passing of three men who are regarded as stars as bright as any the game has produced; but most of the fans have seen it coming because they knew that the old guy with the scythe can be evaded only so long.

Fox was the first to go. He made the debut voluntarily. He came to Boston six years ago, almost at the same time as Grove and Cronin. He arrived at the end of the 1935 season, after Cronin had decided to cash in on the last of his Philadelphia pennants. Fox cost Yawkey $150,000 and two players.

In return old Doughty-X brought his boy-sized American League records. He led the Sox in batting in at the end of the 1938 season and was acknowledged as the league's most valuable player. And he produced home runs—more than 20 in 1938, 20 in 1939, 20 in 1940 and 19 in the past year. But 38 wasn't enough to show the Sox he added winners.

FAILED TO DELIVER
Robert Moses Grove, whose tenure was as fiery as his platters were fast, graduated from Sox to Boston from the city of brotherly love two years ago. He cost Yawkey $125,000—if you exclude the four players who figure in the deal, but he never paid off like old Doughty-X. In his last six years with the Sox he averaged 15 runs a game, while only 41 of the 61 most remarkable averages ever run up, but he couldn't carry on for the Sox.

Arm trouble prevented him from ever again reaching his peak. He tried and tried hard and unfortunately for speed but the Sox were so in Boston was the record of 41 wins and four losses in 1938 when he had retired enough stuff to put a with the highest percentage in the

Players Rough It As Regina Rangers Beaten By Millers

REGINA, Dec. 11.—(CP)—Getting all their goals from the attack of clever Frank Drouin, former New York Rover, Moose Jaw Millers upped Regina Rangers 3-2 here Thursday night to take a firm hold on second place in the Saskatchewan Senior Hockey League.

The game roused after Millers lagged the winning goal half way through the third period. Roy McBride and Vince Gorman drew five minutes for fighting and no score had Gorman returned that he tangled with Drouin. They resumed the score in the penalty box and three policemen were called in to keep Gorman and Drouin from drawing misconduct.

No score had the clubs resumed that McBride lost in Ken McAuley on a breakaway, crashed into the goal and blood spurted all over as the Edmonton blueline's head hit the ice. Carried off by McAuley recovered as a doctor worked on him and insisted on resuming the game and blood oozing through the bandages.

Red Deer Squad Wilts At Trail

TRAIL, B.C., Dec. 12.—(CP)—A travel-weary Red Deer Buffaloes hockey team headed back toward the prairies today after winding up an A.B.C. Senior Amateur Hockey League four-game series in British Columbia with an 11-4 defeat here last night at the hands of Trail Smoke Eaters.

Buffaloes captured only one game of the series. They defeated Kimberley Dynamiters 3-4 Wednesday night. Dynamiters had defeated the Red Deer squad 3-2 in the series opener last Monday, while Smoke Eaters took a 6-5 decision the following night.

Four games in as many nights proved too great a strain for the Alberta team and the Smoke Eaters scored almost all will last night.

Trail counted four goals in the opening period. Mike Bucken got the first two and was followed by As Cronie and Rudy Bobrowsky. As Cronie put Red Deer in the scoring column less than three minutes after the opening of the second frame, but two goals by Cronie and one each by Les Kennedy and Maurice Duffy in the remainder of the period sent Trail far in the lead.

Ben Hogan Six Under Par To Lead $10,000 Miami Open

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Off with a bogey five, Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., suddenly found his touch Thursday and turned in a brilliant six-under-par 64 that gave him a two-stroke lead over the field in the first round of the $10,000 Miami open golf tournament.

He tied the Miami Springs course record held jointly by wild bird Melhorn, Willie Klein and Sam Sneed, but did it on a layout changed this year to make the going tougher.

Hogan fired birdies on the third, fourth, fifth and seventh. Making the turn in three-under-par, 25, Hogan caught fire again on the 12th, when he laid a pitch within 18 inches of the pin for a birdie three. A five-footer dropped for him on the 13th for another birdie, and he ended the dazzling part of his performance with a fine 15-footer for a drive on the short 16th.

Second place in the field of 218 went to Ky Laffoon of Chicago. Pressing Laffoon with 87's were Jim Ferrier, the former Australian amateur champion, playing out of

Fund Of $25,000 For Service Ball

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—(AP)—St. Louis Cardinals Thursday night traded first baseman Johnny Mize to New York Giants for Catcher Ken O'Dea, Pitcher Bill Lohrmann and an undisclosed sum of cash.

Announcement of the Cards-Giants dealing came after the winter major league baseball meeting had broken up in mid-afternoon with only a scattering of player swaps revealed in four days of conferences.

Mize, a steady-hitting slugger, had been with the Cardinals since 1936. He hit 111 better than 300 in every season with the Cardinals. A few other trades still were hanging fire as the baseball meeting disbanded officially following a preliminary gesture of help to the armed forces.

In the joint session of the two major leagues a fund of $25,000 was set up to buy equipment for Army and navy baseball teams and a decision made to raise, perhaps double, the price of tickets for a next year's all-star game, from which all receipts will go to the "Red and Blue" fund.

There was some talk about the effect of war on baseball, but the discussion was left over for later meeting of the leagues planned for New York early in February.

An attempt to increase the number of night games from seven to 14 in each park was voted down by Committee Chairman M. M. Ladd after the two leagues split on the issue.

MINOR MOVE KILLED
An amendment proposed by the minor league to allow farm systems to advance players through the minors without incurring optional service restrictions was voted down, and the proposal for a minor agreement extended for the next year rejected.

Montreal's General Manager Branch Rickey, of the Cardinals, has an appointment with President Phil Wrigley, of Chicago Cubs, and it was believed a deal that would send pitcher Vernon Kennedy to Cleveland and New York Giants send Second Baseman Burgess Whitehead to Toronto.

Wheat Pool Asks Payments F.O.B. Shipping Points

CALGARY, Dec. 12.—(CP)—Claiming that under present method of payment, Alberta farmers get the least money for their wheat of any farmers in western Canada, the Alberta Wheat Pool is petitioning the Federal government to make payments "F.O.B. shipping point" instead of the basic price paid at coast and Lakehead terminals.

L. B. Nesbitt, publicity director for the Wheat Pool, announced on Thursday a resolution to this effect was passed at the convention of Wheat Pool delegates here last week.

The outcome of the struggle is sharply put to us: To vanquish or to die."

The closest and most complete national unity was necessary—the union of all men of goodwill, men who were willing to sacrifice everything, even their lives.

"We may in the past have sailed overseas by feel and measure," Gen. LaFleche said. "We may have shrunk from our responsibilities. Today it is a question of life or death. We must accept the situation which those in power have the responsibility to give us in carrying the nation's efforts toward its only goal: 'Survival'."

It was the task of French Canadians, at the side of our compatriots, of the side of our allies and American friends, to see that the torch of liberty never dies out.

"It is with the mothers, entrusted with the morale of the nation, that the first responsibilities lie," Gen. LaFleche said. "They are the ones who are called upon at this moment to sacrifice the most: their sons."

Women of my country, be courageous. Give your sons. The salvation of the country is at stake."

Employers, employees and all other Canadians, in their own sphere of activities, must undertake all that was in their power to intensify the productive capacity of the nation.

"Those who would by word or deed be responsible for the weakening of our production would indeed be traitors to their country," he said.

"Total and absolute Canadian unity was essential, and this could not be attained without equally of sacrifice."

"The whole of Canada is in danger," he said. "Every one of its inhabitants is threatened. The attack may be coming from anywhere, any time, day or night."

Military Defence Instruction For Ontario Schools

TORONTO, Dec. 12.—(CP)—A course of military defence instruction, including air raid precautions work, is to be included in the high school curriculum and will probably begin early in 1942, officials of the Ontario department of education said Thursday. The course, being prepared in cooperation with the military officials, will replace the present high school civics subject.

Women Performing Vital Tasks In War Effort . . . Canadian Troops Arrive In Hong Kong

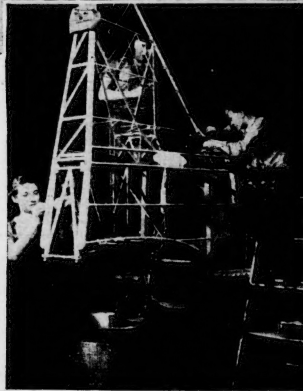

These are some of the first pictures of Canadian troops arriving at Hong Kong, which is often termed "the Gibraltar of the Far East." Under command of Brigadier J. K. Lawson, shown above chatting with Major-General G. M. Malby, Hong Kong's commanding officer, the Canadians take their place alongside British, Scottish and Indian regiments which have arrived to strengthen Hong Kong's formidable garrison.

Britain's champion jockey for the present season is Harry Wragg, and another rider who has done very well is R. Percyman. Both only ride when they get leave from their wartime job—anti-aircraft gunners on a gun site somewhere in England. They are pictured manning their "Ack-Ack" guns.

Importance of the work of Canadian women in war industry is emphasized by pictures taken in a Montreal aircraft plant where trim twin-motored Avro Anson bombers are being turned out in quantity for student pilots who one day will be dropping "eggs" on Berlin. Above, left, parts of the training bombers meet for final assembly before testing and delivery to schools of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan. At right, top, sturdy wings will emerge from the maze of latticed woodwork. Lower picture, more deft women work on tail assembly.

From France To R.C.A.F.—Father And Son

Flying Officer Silas Guillon, a native of France, fought in the Great War as a pilot officer with the British Royal Flying Corps. Being too old for active service overseas he is Link Trainer instructor with the Commonwealth Air Training plan. In France when the Germans overran the country he escaped to Canada. Recently his son, Jack, received his wings at Summerside, P.E.I., and is ready for Overseas service as a Sergeant-Pilot. Here father and son are shown with the latter at the controls of a Harvard trainer.

Full-Blooded Maori Gets Wings

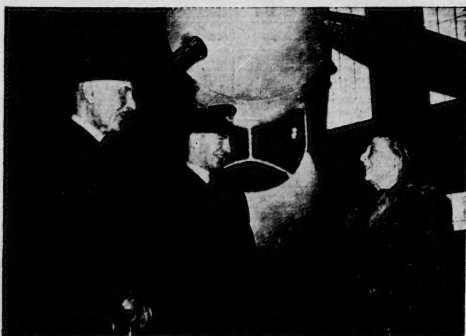

Among a large class of New Zealand airmen to receive their pilot's wings at No. 2 F.T.S. (Uplands) was a full-blooded Maori, LAC H. E. Mote-Kingi. Wing Commander F. C. Seavel, a New Zealander now attached to the R.A.F., is shown making the presentation.

Friendship Bridge

"Hands across the Atlantic" will be extended this Christmas by American youngsters pledged to send greeting cards to less fortunate British children. Lorna Lynn, U.S. and Susan Harrison, British, look over samples in New York.

Their Excellencies Visit Air Station

Keenly interested in development of the British commonwealth air training plan, His Excellency the Earl of Athlone, governor-general of Canada, accompanied by her Royal Highness Princess Alice, recently made a visit to Rockcliffe air station, near Ottawa, where they inspected the newest types of aircraft now being delivered to the Royal Canadian Air Force. Their excellencies are shown, above, with Wing Commander J. L. Hurley, commanding officer at Rockcliffe.

Canadians line the rail of their transport for first glimpse of Hong Kong. Their long voyage across the Pacific to their new station was described by the soldiers as "uneventful."

Another view of the Canucks as they leave the ship for their new barracks is given in the above picture.
